

AIA Tampa Bay

A Chapter of the American Institute of Architects

Allied Individual Membership Application

Allied Membership was created to promote communication among all members of the design and construction team. Individual allied membership is open to engineers, planners, landscape architects, artists, and those in government, education, journalism, manufacturing, industry and other fields allied to architecture. Individuals must not be otherwise eligible for membership in the Institute. Allied membership is separate at each level of the AIA and for each local chapter.

Benefits of Allied Individual Membership

Allied Membership is a good way to stay connected to the architecture community in the Tampa Bay area. We have more than 620 members of the local chapter and our numbers continues to grow. The chapter hosts more than 50 different events throughout the year including luncheons, CE classes, building tours, Gallery AIA opening receptions, our annual design awards program and our annual gala – our chapter's largest annual event drawing more than 250 attendees.

Some of the direct benefits of allied membership are:

- Invitations to, and notification of Chapter events and activities
- The Bay Architect Weekly e-newsletter and the ARCH-ade e-newsletter keeping you apprised of happenings within the architecture community.
- Access to the AIA Tampa Bay Membership List
- Member pricing to attend events and 30% discount for AIA contract documents.
- You and your company will be listed on our chapter website with a link to your email and your company website.
- As a member you are able to participate on chapter committees as well as suggest events and programs to our various committee chairs.
- As AIA Tampa Bay is viewed as the resource for “everything architecture”, we often refer architect members to Allied member's companies for goods and services.

Contact Dawn Mages, Executive Director if you have any questions about Allied Membership.
